2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Managing Director, Andhra Pradesh State Disaster Management Authority(APSDMA) has proposed to conduct mock exercises in all 13 districts of AP with the aim of enhancing state, district and local level emergency planning to deal with various disasters. Andhra Pradesh State Disaster Management Authority (APSDMA) in collaboration with district authorities and all line departments will coordinate overall conduct of Mock Exercises. Andhra Pradesh State Disaster Management Authority has conducted two consultation meetings on 19th & 23rd June 2017 regarding organizing mock exercises in 13 districts of Andhra Pradesh with the concerned line departments such as Revenue, Fire, Police, NDRF, SDRF, Water Resource Dept, Coast Guard, Naval department, SCERT and agencies like Indian Red Cross etc., In the meeting it has been decided to organize mock exercises at school level and village level for the nine coastal districts of Andhra Pradesh in two phases considering the need of organizing such mock exercises to enhance the level of disaster preparedness of the state.

3. The Managing Director, Andhra Pradesh State Disaster Management Authority has further stated that the village level mock exercises are centrally monitored and managed by APSDMA and each district administration will be the incident commander for the programme. All the concerned line departments under district administration up to village level will take part in the exercise and identify the gaps and areas to be strengthen. Need of capacity building within the department and at the community level will be evaluated through these programmes in order to identify the potential errors in communication and resource allocation during the time of emergencies. Tentative dates for the 1st Phase of programmes are also planned in this regard as mentioned below. Mock exercises at remaining districts will be conducted thereafter.
